ADDENDUM-II

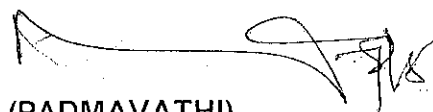

No: FD(Spl)118 PEN 2013 Dated:07-5-2014

- i. Therefore PRAN of an employee issued by one sector (Private/Government) can be shifted to other sector through the prescribed Inter Sector Shifting (ISS) Procedure by the Treasury Officer in the following instances, provided that the sector has implemented NPS as per PFRDA architecture:
  - a) Shifting Employee PRAN allotted by Private Sector to Government Sector on the employee joining State Government Service.
  - b) Shifting Employee PRAN allotted by Central Government to State Sector on employee joining State Government Service.
  - c) Shifting PRAN allotted by Autonomous Bodies, Boards, Corporations, Societies and Universities of State and Central Government on employee joining State Government Service.
  - d) If the employee working for State Government resigns from and joins the State Government itself, in a new capacity not following Rule 244/252 (b) of KCSR and in between the period of resignation and the new appointment if there are days not spent on duty (unemployed), even such PRANs shall also be shifted in HRMS from the DDO under whom employee was working prior to resignation to the DDO where he is newly appointed. There shall obviously be no credits for the period not spent on duty.

- e) In case where the employee has resigned from Central Government/Private Sector and subsequently joined State Government, his individual PRAN shall be shifted to the State Sector even if the period in between the two appointments is treated as period not spent on duty, provided however that the subscriber has not exited from the NPS itself.
